

AS TORRANCE SLEEPS . . .

Torrance is a bustling and a teeming city during the day, but at night its lies at your feet—a blanket of light of sheer beauty as viewed from the Palos Verdes Hills.

On page A-6 you see another view looking toward the peninsula from the same hills.

There perhaps is no place in the world where such magnificent sights fashioned by man can be seen.

Up on the hills, it is silent and still.

Down below along busy night streets the drama of the city unfolds.

We'll unfold the other wonders of Torrance to you in The Press as time goes on. As you know, it is quite a city.

RUBBER SAVES COTTON

Cog-shape rubber wheels are helping cotton farmers to solve some waste problems during harvest. The 24-inch diameter wheels—made of a special rubber compound—can be attached to the front of any one or two-row cotton picker to help pick cotton off the low branches and sweep up bolls that have dropped on the ground.

One Torrance was entirely in the 17th Congressional District. Since reapportionment, a small part is in the 28th Congressional district.

'How to' Classes, Skiing on Ice, Highlight Torrance Recreation Plans

Youngsters and oldsters alike get specialized crafts instruction in a series of "How to" classes offered this month by Torrance Recreation Department.

Kicking off the class series will be children's instruction in puppet making, scheduled to begin Jan. 12 in the Arts and Crafts Center at Sea-Aire Park.

Saturday morning sessions begin at 9:30 a.m. and continue through 11:30 a.m. followed by afternoon craft and ceramics classes from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Youngsters 6 through 14 are eligible and a $1 enrollment fee covers all four class meetings and materials.

Registration may be made at the Craft Center on Jan. 12. Class series concludes February 2.

Adult Lecture-Demonstrations at the center begin Wednesday, Jan. 9, with emphasis on glass crafts, mosaics and copper enameling. Workshops are offered the following Thursdays, giving participants a chance to practice under guidance of a trained instructor.

Registration may be made at the Center with payment of a $1.50 enrollment fee for the full, four-week class series. Supplies are available at near cost. For further information call the Recreation Department, FA 8-5310 Ext. 263.

Students of a three-session dry-land, ski school sponsored by the Torrance

Recreation Department will climax training on a ski course of crushed ice.

The first session Jan. 15 and the second on Jan. 22 will be held at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd. A Ski Lecture plus a Ski Fashion Show is scheduled on January 15. On Jan. 22 the group will see ski films and have dryland practice. On Jan. 29 the group will ski down the slope (a man-made crushed ice ski run) at El Retiro Park, 126 Vista del Parque. Hours are 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Instructor for the course will be Ed Piester, a Far West Ski Association instructor. The Ski School is primarily for teen-agers and adults. Children seven and older may be enrolled if parents are in the class.

The cost for the series is $2 which covers the cost of the snow. Ski equipment is needed Jan. 22 and 29.

For those who don't have ski equipment, rentals are available from local ski shops for $1 per lesson. To register for the Ski School, call the Torrance Recreation Department, FA 8-5310, Ext. 263. Registrations are accepted on first-come, first-served basis.

Missing Child Found by Dad Asleep in Hay

Eleven-year-old Patricia Colleen Munsterman, 2451 W. 253rd St., Lomita, was found by her father at 1:45 yesterday morning after being missing since supper.

The Sheriff's department, assisted by the Torrance Police Department, spared no effort to find the missing girl.

At least nine cars combed the area hunting the missing girl.

Her mother, Dolores, told Sheriff's officers that little Patricia ate her supper, then went out to play with her black-and-white spotted dog, Cindy.

Patricia went through the rear kitchen door and when her mother looked out a little later, she was gone.

The family recently moved into the area from Los Angeles, and the little girl missed her playmates. It was reported to sheriff's officers.

When found, little Patricia was sleeping in some hay near a stable, east of Crenshaw Blvd., not too far from her home.

Sgt. Don Miller of the Sheriff's Department was in charge of the search.

We Wanna Meet Your Neighbor; Introduce Us!

Unless you live either in a lone tepee out in the hot, barren desert, or in a lone igloo out on a cold, cold, bleak (brrrr) ice field, you all have neighbors.

Yes, in places like that, life could be pretty grim and lonely.

But — thank heavens! — we live in Torrance, and Torrance is a neighborly city.

As a matter of fact, that's one of the nicest of the many nice things about Torrance that we like.

You see, we like neighbors, and we like to meet them.

As a matter of fact, we would like to meet YOUR favorite neighbor and introduce her to the readers of THE PRESS.

So, why not sit down right NOW and write a letter to Neighbor, The Torrance Press, 3228 Sepulveda Blvd., Torrance, Calif., and tell us about your neighbor.

The writing doesn't have to be fancy (what busy house-wife REALLY has time to write?) or literary, and we don't even mind how the words are spelled. Just write about YOUR neighbor exactly as you would tell us about her if we were sitting in your own home.

And, if you do write, we may just visit your home to meet your neighbor — so, in turn, we can introduce her to the many, many other readers of THE PRESS. We're sure they would like to meet her, too.

CHILDREN'S FUTURE

Dr. Stuart Marsee, El Camino College, president, will speak on "Faith in the Future of Our Children" at a meeting of the Jefferson Parent-Teacher Association at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the school cafeteria. A short film will be shown depicting the growth of El Camino College preceding coffee hour.

The first business recession in Torrance was in 1913.
